

Week Commencing 27.4.20

Complex Sentences

LO: To use compound sentences.

Success criteria - Complex sentence using a subordinate clause Lily lived in the mansion, although her father had gone.

1 main clause

Subordinate clause

Subordinating conjunction

Comma before subordinate conjunction

Challenge 1 Underline the correct parts using the Success Criteria above

1. Lily couldn't understand where dad had gone, since no one could find him.
2. Malkin rose from the ground, although it still felt wrong.
3. Thaddeus spotted a cog in his insides, even though it couldn't be replaced.
4. Although Malkin peered into the sky, He had no idea what was flying towards him.

Challenge 2- Add a subordinating conjunction

1. The man hunted through the shop, _____ there was nothing to be seen.
2. _____ Malkin was damaged almost beyond repair, _____ the impact on landing was huge.
3. _____ Lily had a sense of fear, _____ Mrs Rust put an arm around her shoulder.
4. _____ Mrs Rust gave her wonderful food, _____ she could feel more like her old self.

Challenge 3 Add a subordinate conjunction and subordinate clause to make a complex sentence.

1. Malkin was repaired by Thaddeaus
2. The men tried to intimidate Robert
3. The mechanicals were left wound down in the field
4. Lily peered into the coal store.
5. She hated the headmistress.

Challenge 4– Use the pictures to make a complex sentence for each.

