

Week Commencing 1.6.20

LO: To review compound and complex sentences

F A N B O Y S

1. Example: Oliver was sent to live at the workhouse, for he was an orphaned boy.

First Main Clause

Comma

Coordinating Conjunction

Second Main Clause

Challenge 1 Spot the mistake in each compound sentence and rewrite correctly

1. Apatosaurus is one of the largest animals to walk the earth, its name means "Deceptive lizard".
2. Microceratus may be the smallest dinosaurs in Jurassic World, yet they have short frills and beak-shaped mouths.
3. The triceratops is the largest horned dinosaurs, for it lives 68-66 million years ago.
4. The velociraptor is one of the most intelligent dinosaurs, so they are not yet available for public observation.
5. The Jurassic herbivore is decked with 17 broad bony plates, it can use its tail as a deadly weapon.

Week Commencing 1.6.20

To review Compound and Complex

Success criteria - Complex sentence using a subordinate clause Lily lived in the mansion, although her father had gone.

1 main clause

Subordinate clause ○

Subordinating conjunction ○

Comma before subordinate conjunction ○

Challenge 2– Spot the mistake and fix the complex sentence

1. Jurassic world, which is one of the world's largest dinosaur parks, boasts an impressive amount of dinosaurs.
2. John Hammond, is a world-renowned dinosaur advocate, opened the park in 1987.
3. The Creation Lab which will astound your eyes is open to the public at certain times - check the facilities for further information.
4. The blood of Jurassic-era mosquitos, which is trapped eternally in amber, contains the dinosaur DNA.
5. Our scientists, , analyse the Can sample to map the entire dinosaur genome.
6. The galimimus, which is an omnivore.