

Week Commencing 18.5 .20

Many Questions

Success criteria: Many Questions List any question words.

LO: To use compound sentences.

Example 1:

Where is the treasure? the diamonds? the rubies?

- Question word ○
Initial question ○
Question mark ○

Don't forget to underline using the success criteria

Challenge 1: Copy these sentences into your book, underlining the 2nd or 3rd person pronoun.

As well

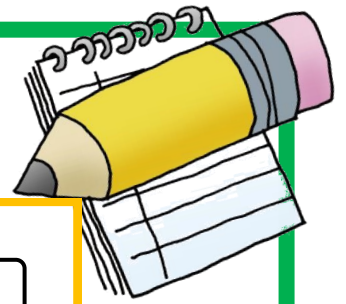

1. What if it rained? what if it poured? it thundered? it became stormy
2. Why did they come after Malkin? why had the airship crashed? Why had madame left the mechanimals to wind down?
3. Where is the treasure? the diamonds? the gold? the rubies
4. How did I feel? how did I act? how did I cope?

Challenge 2: Complete the questions by adding 2 more ideas that link

1. What were these strange Moises?
2. Where was the snow? .
3. Was it luck?
4. What had happened to Malkin?

Week Commencing 18.5 .20

Many Questions

Success criteria: Many Questions List any question words.

LO: To use compound sentences.

Example 1:

Where is the treasure? the diamonds? the rubies?

Question word ○

Initial question ○

Question mark ○

Don't forget to underline using the success criteria

Challenge 3 Create your own Many questions

1. Lily in the dormitory
2. During atonement lessons with the Kraken
3. After finding out dad was gone

Challenge 4– Make your own sentences about finding a strange object or about the current lockdown. Remember to use three questions and a response to it at the end.