

Week Commencing 18.05.20

Correct the spelling mistakes

Challenge 1:

The spelling mistake in each sentence has been underlined. Write the correct spelling.

1. The phone would sometimes interfear with the TV signal.
2. Rosie was extremely atched to her teddy bear.
3. She didn't know what to sugest.
4. Joe's favourite lesson was phisical education (P.E).
5. He had a guilty conshence.
6. Samira thought his face was familier.
7. The govermant building was magnificent.
8. A shower was installed for the convenence of swimmers.

Challenge 2:

Find the spelling mistake and correct it.

1. It was a hindrensce to the child's progress.
2. The simbol had a meaning.
3. The school comitee meet twice a month.
4. Each classroom was equiped with interactive whiteboards.
5. "It's rude to intirrupt," she told the children.
6. Tim would always recomend his favourite film.
7. Hamza was defanite that his answers were correct.