La lección para esta semana. Lesson for this week!

---

- This week's Spanish lesson is looking at some of the parts of "El Cuerpo" (the body) in Spanish. You have seen this vocabulary (words) before, so hopefully you will remember! 😊
- Use the power point in slide show mode .Slide number 6 introduces the lesson ;"El Cuerpo"
- Slides 7 - 14 teach you some parts of the body. I have put the sounds of the words in brackets, so you can practise how to say them. Do this a few times, until you are confident, that you know them.
- You could perhaps learn with somebody that you live with and compete with each other to see who can learn them the quickest!

¡Buena Suerte! Good Luck!

- Look at slide 25 if you have time.

Activity Sheet Help

These are the missing
words, but watch out!
They aren't in order:

La mano

El pie

La cabeza

La pierna

El hombro

El brazo

La rodilla

"Juan dice ..."
( hwan dee-thay)
"Simon says ..."

Try playing "Juan dice ..."
(Simon says ...) in Spanish.

You will need 3 people to play the game. One player says, for example ; "Juan dice toca el hombro" (Simon says touch your shoulder) and the other players must touch their shoulder.

If they don't, they are out.
This is trickier than the English Simon says, because you've got to know the parts of the body in Spanish or you won't win!

Carry on playing until you have used all the words that you have learnt for the body today.

¡Buena Suerte! Good Luck!
