

Week Commencing 08.06.20

LO: To use apostrophes for possession.

We use an apostrophe ' and add an s at the end of a singular noun to show that something belongs to someone.

Eg. The cat's tail was fluffy.

The apostrophe and s on the end of cat shows that the tail belongs to the cat.

Challenge 1 Write out the sentences below and put the apostrophe to show possession in the correct place.

1. This is Joes hat.

2. The ladys car had broken down.

3. Petes dog has been missing for two week.s

4. Beths car needs cleaning.

5. The childrens dinner was ready.

6. Paddington is my teachers favourite story.

Challenge 2 Write a sentence about the things below including the possessive apostrophe.

1. The red car belonging to the boy

2. The loud bark belonging to the dog.

3. The pretty new coat belonging to Amy.

4. The delicious dinner belonging to Ben.

5. The football belonging to Matt which had gone into the garden of his neighbour.

6. The computer belonging to Hannah that has lots of games.

Challenge 3 Tick or cross the boxes to show if the possessive apostrophes are correct.

1. The weather man's predictions were right for this week.

2. Bobs coat's is warm and dry.

3. Paddington's favourite food is marmalade sandwiches.

4. The dog's favourite game is chasing his tail.

5. The birds wing's were getting stronger.